

2023 One Maryland One Book Author Events

September 9
& October 7
10.00 - 11.00 a.m

Enoch Pratt
Free Library

East Baltimore Walking Tour: Mapping the Reservation

Ashley Minner (Lumbee) leads a free walking tour based on her project, Mapping East Baltimore's Reservation.

November 8
6.30 - 7.30 p.m.

Carroll County
Public Library,
Eldersburg Branch

Native America's Protectors Performance

Keith Colston (Tuscarora and Lumbee) will discuss American Indian communities that are indigenous to Maryland, and share holistic approach of the culture through dress, dance, and music.

October 10
6.00 - 7.30 p.m

Talbot County
Free Library,
Easton Branch

Eastern Shore Native American History and Culture

Nause-Waiwash Chief Donna Wolf Mother Abbott discusses the historical use of Eastern Shore land and water resources, European contact, ongoing projects, and future plans.

November 11
10.00 - 1.00 p.m

Frederick Douglass
High School (Prince George's County)

Native American Scholar Symposium

Students and community members will participate in panels, discussions, and presentations focused on the book and its themes.

October 24
6.00 - 8.00 p.m

Wor-Wic
Community College

Screening of Smoke Signals (1998)

This coming-of-age dramedy is one of the first major films written, directed, and produced by Native Americans. Discussion to follow.

November 12
3.00 - 5.00 p.m

Dorchester
County Public Library

OMOB Discussion

Nanticoke Historic Preservation Alliance and The Dorchester County Public Library present a community book discussion about There There and modern Native Life.

November 7
2.00 - 3.00 p.m

Worcester County Library

Ancestral Trauma: Healing Life's Patterns

Dr. Sandra Burke, Psychologist and Women's Trauma Specialist, presents this complex topic in an engaging, warm, and integrative way.

November 13
7.00 - 8.00 p.m

Howard County Library System

Native Expulsion & Manifest Destiny (Virtual/Online)

Dr. Richard Bell, Professor of History at University of Maryland, will speak on westward expansion and its impact on Native communities.

All events are FREE and open to the public. To find one near you, visit our event calendar at www.mdhumanities.org/events